Conference Themes

The conference organising committee welcomes proposals related to the following themes:

1. Questions of institutional implementation of CLIL instruction at university level
2. CLIL case studies in Italy and Europe (on-line / face-to-face lessons)
3. CLIL teacher training at university level
4. CLIL teaching or content teaching in a foreign language?

Working languages: English and Italian

Paper Submission

The committee invites proposals for individual papers on the above topics; presentations (in Italian or English) will be allocated 20 minutes. For each proposed paper, please send a short abstract of no more than 400 words by email to flora.sisti@uniurb.it using the attached Word abstract template (also available on the conference website: <http://e-learning.sti.uniurb.it/clil/conference.php>).

For full consideration, proposals must be received by Wednesday December 10th, 2008. All abstracts will be peer-reviewed by conference organising committee members. Notices of acceptance will be sent to individual paper presenters by Tuesday December 30th, 2008.

Should your paper be accepted, you will be asked to provide the following in English:

- A formal abstract of the paper for inclusion in the conference booklet and website
- An electronic copy of your full paper. Papers must not be longer than 15 pages

The deadline for submission of formal abstracts is January 18th, 2009

The deadline for submission of full papers is March 31st, 2009

Publication

The aim is to publish papers presented at the seminar to create a coherent publication. This may be a book or a special edition of a journal in the field of Applied Linguistics.

Papers submitted to the CLIL conference must be previously unpublished works, if they are to be published. Publication in a conference book or edition would not prevent publication elsewhere at a later date and copyright remains with the author(s) of the individual papers.
